

The Story Of Moses.

By Duncan James Maltby

Moses stood by the Red Sea, with the Israelites behind him. The Egyptians were close!

Moses raised his staff high above his head, trusting in God's power.

Slowly, the mighty Red Sea
began to move. The water started to rise on both sides.

Higher and higher, the water climbed, forming incredible walls of blue.

The path through the middle of the sea grew wider and drier with each moment.

★ The Israelites watched in amazement as the dry seabed ★ appeared before them.

They began to walk forward,
their feet on the dry ground,
between the towering water.

★ Children and adults, all walked safely through the ★ wondrous parted sea.

A whimsical illustration featuring a large wooden frame with a white background. The frame is decorated with several stars: a large orange star in the top left, three smaller orange stars in the top right, and three small blue stars on the left side. In the bottom left corner, a small white rocking horse with an orange mane and tail is shown. The background is a light blue sky with white snowflakes, and the ground is covered in white snow with small green plants.

Moses kept his staff lifted, a beacon of faith and hope.

★ The walls of water shimmered, holding back the ★ vast ocean.
★

★ The dry path stretched far ahead, leading them to freedom.

They kept walking, leaving the chasing Egyptians far behind.

Once all the Israelites were safely across, Moses slowly ★ began to lower his staff.

The mighty walls of water
began to tremble and sway.

With a great roar, the Red Sea crashed back together, closing the path.

Moses and the Israelites were safe, free from the Egyptians, ★ thanks to God's miracle.

The Story of Moses.

By Duncan James Maltby

