

The Very First Christmas

Duncan J Maltby

Long, long ago, in a town called Nazareth, there lived a kind young woman named Mary.

One day, an angel appeared to her with wonderful news!

"Mary," said the angel, "God has chosen you for something very special. You are going to have a baby, and you will name him Jesus. He will be God's own Son."

A whimsical illustration featuring a large wooden frame with a white background. The frame is decorated with several stars: a large orange star in the top left, a small orange star in the top right, and a small blue star in the bottom left. A small white horse with orange spots and a red mane is standing on a red rocking horse in the bottom left corner. The background is a light blue sky with white snowflakes. The ground is white with small green plants.

Mary was amazed, but she said, "I will do whatever God wants."

Mary was engaged to marry a good man named Joseph.
Joseph was a carpenter who worked with wood.

When Joseph learned about the baby, an angel visited him in a dream too. "Don't be afraid," the angel said. "This baby is from God. Take care of Mary and the baby Jesus."

Soon, Mary and Joseph had to take a long trip to the town of Bethlehem. Everyone had to go to their family's hometown.

Mary rode on a gentle donkey while Joseph walked beside her. It was a long, bumpy journey.

When they finally reached Bethlehem, the town was very crowded. They needed a place to stay because the baby would be born very soon.

The innkeeper said, "All my rooms are full." But he offered them a warm, dry stable where the animals slept.

That night, in the stable with the cows and donkeys, baby

★ Jesus was born. Mary wrapped him in soft cloths ★ and laid him gently in a manger, which is a feeding box for animals.

Nearby, some shepherds were watching their sheep in the fields. Suddenly, the dark sky filled with bright light!

An angel appeared and told ★ them wonderful news:
"Tonight, a very special baby has been born in Bethlehem.
He is Christ the Lord!"

Then the whole sky filled with many angels singing, "Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth!" The shepherds hurried to Bethlehem and found Mary, Joseph, and baby Jesus.

Far away in the East, some wise men saw a beautiful, bright star in the sky. They knew this star meant a new king had been born.

They followed the star for ★ many days and nights, traveling across deserts and ★ mountains, until it led them to Jesus.

The wise men brought special gifts for the baby king: gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

★ They bowed down and worshiped him.

And that is how Jesus came into the world on the very first Christmas. He was God's greatest gift to everyone.

Every Christmas, we remember that special night when Jesus was born, and we celebrate God's love for all of us.
